it is very important that you keep the tablets in their original container and take the tablets in the same order that they appear in the container gaba neurotransmitters work by connecting themselves directly to gaba receptor sites on large protein molecules called gaba receptor-chloride ionophore complexes