myriapod physicians should warn patients that prolonged erections greater than 4 hours and priapism (painful