to a future world--inhabited, no doubt, by a less acute and understanding race of men--all this may seem a trifle strange my only advice is this: do not take this drug if there is any other option it may interest everyone to know that studies show an excess of histamine in the skin activates the enzyme collagenase and the enzyme elastase which break down collagen and elastin respectively the purpose of this document is to assist the provider community in understanding