all medical studies have been conducted using a particular alcohol extract called li 160 processing speed is one of the measures of cognitive efficiency or cognitive proficiency you know, the drafters of the harrison act said very clearly on the floor of congress what it was they wanted to achieve