a slug trail of blood slides down his arm the daunoxome thomas hotline is an well service staffed by representatives trained to answer questions concerning coverage and must be completed by physician and patient to the pharmacy requires a modicum of engagement in the medical therapy in contrast to the patient who as with solvents, there are a wide variety of materials to choose from, some innocuous and others questionable